

PERSONAL SWOT ANALYSIS:

INTERNAL FACTORS
STRENGTHS (+)	WEAKNESSES (-)
My strengths are: I'm a good at guitar, I'm good at communicating, I'm good at problem solving, I'm at good at writing melody for original songs. I also got a lot of experience in gigging and recording situations. Other people, think I got a good video presence and that's what makes me likable. People also said I will be a good student rep as I am passionate and enjoy helping people.	My weak points are. In which people will think I'm short fuse and sometimes think that I don't wanna talk to them. My hybrid picking and speed technique are slowly developing and need work to be done to get it down. As the song that I'm doing heavily reliable on it. Timing and groove are my weakness giving my feedback and of which, I shall make my main focus for my practise routines.

EXTERNAL FACTORS
OPPORTUNITIES (+)	THREATS (-)
I get lessons by some of the best guitar players around. In which, I'll get to network with them and do some collabs with them. My university supports me well and I can network with my class mates and other students at Waterbear. My social media presence especially on Instagram is growing which hopefully will lead me into endorsements and networking opportunities within.	I will need my song as it a challenging song and if I don't practice it. If I don't focus on timing and my groove my sound and song will be disrupted and easily pointed out but the makers.
